GENTILES BELIEVE.

LESSON IX, FOURTH QUARTER, IN-TERNATIONAL SERIES, NOV. 27.

Text of the Lesson, Acts xiii, 44, to xiv, 7-Memory Verses, 46-48-Golden Text, Acts xiii, 47-Commentary by the Rev. D. M. Stearns.

44. "And the next Sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the Word of God." The apostles had no doubt spoken to many in private through the week, and those who had heard the preceding Sabbath bad not been quiet about the wondrous resurrection story, and the consequent great redemption so fully and freely proclaimed. It became the talk of the town and an immense congregation assembled not to hear the wisdom nor the cratory of the apostles, but to hear the Word of God

45. Such manifest working of the Holy Spirit could not but provoke the adversary to envy and biasphemy. Compare Acts v. 23; vii, 54. If none of the religious people of a community are stirred to talk against the preaching it is an evidence either that they are all wonderfully in sympathy with Christ, or that the preaching lacks salt (II Tim bil 12; Col. iv 6; 40, "To the Jew first" was the principle acted upor in all apostolle preaching (Ross. 1, 16), the to the Gentles. Man has the power of receiving or putting from him his great gift of everlasting life which God has provided at such infinite cost, lanif any one judges himself unworthy of life, it is equal to judging himself worthy of death (John it, 36, Rom. it, 4, 5)

47. Paul's commission was to bear the same of the Lord not only before the children of Israel but before the Gentles SEVERAL TIMES LARGER THAN THE dren of Israel but before the Gentles (Acts ix 15), and be anous from Isa, xlix, Servant of the Lord. "I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that then mayest he my salvation into the end of the earth." While the my story of the church is not revealed to the Old Yestament (Eph. iii, 5, 6), the calling of the Gertlie nations after issue! shall have been converted is an oft regeated fact; and yet Paul seems to gather from this passage samething concession his mission to the Contiles.

48. The Gentiles gave heef to the mesthey plorified it and were made glad, and na many as were ordained to eternal life believed. Not all are now given to Christ, out all who are given shall come (John vi. 37), and whosoever will may come (Rev. xxii, 17; sure that none w.i! be cast out. This is the time of salvation for the elect courch after which shall come the salvation of Israe and then of all matimus (Arts
